industries and buy$ local. As the Lake County Board of Supervisors considers Ag. initiatives put forth for deliberation; the Agriculture Advisory Committee would provide data based, fact-driven and a global perspective along with discussing effective practicable options that would promote a sustainable future for the Lake County agriculture community. When I approached Jessica Pyska, prior to the election, about creating an Ag advisory committee, it was for all of the above stated reasons. A many decades Lake County farmer of grapes, pears and walnuts, that I may support sustainability, preservation and the economic vibrancy of an agricultural community throughout Lake County, is the reason for my submitting an application for a position on the Lake County Agriculture Advisory Committee. Thank you for considering my application.
