Pathway 1, Community Response Track: Lake FRC’s DR Program aims to engage families in a collaborative and supportive manner to address their needs and prevent the escalation of risks.

- Engaging the Family: Lake FRC’s Differential Response program takes a family-centered approach. A trained Family Advocate engages with the family to establish rapport, build trust, and understand their unique circumstances and needs. The goal is to create a collaborative partnership between the family and the DR program.
- Strengths-Based Approach: The Community Response track focuses on identifying and building upon the strengths and resources within the family and the community. It acknowledges that families have inherent strengths that can be mobilized to address their Page 3 challenges. The Family Advocate works with the family to recognize and harness these strengths to promote positive change and support the family through successful achievement of their goals.
- Comprehensive Service Planning: The DR program, in collaboration with the family, develops a comprehensive family plan tailored to address the identified needs and goals. The plan may include a range of services and support, such as parenting education, counseling, skill-building programs, access to community resources, and assistance with basic needs. The services aim to strengthen protective factors, enhance family functioning, and reduce the risk of child maltreatment.
- Ongoing Support and Monitoring: The Family Advocate maintains regular contact with the family providing ongoing support, guidance, and assistance in accessing the identified services. Direct services are provided to the children and family with no less than two visits per month to the family’s home. They act as a consistent point of contact and advocate for the family’s needs within the community assisting in arrangement for services and providing transportation. The DR program closely monitors the family’s progress, regularly reassessing their situation and adjusting the service plan, as necessary.
- Collaboration with Community Partners: The Community Response track emphasizes collaboration with community-based organizations, service providers, and informal supports within the family’s network. The Family Advocate connects the family to relevant resources and support, leveraging community partnerships to enhance the effectiveness of the intervention. This collaborative approach ensures that families receive comprehensive assistance tailored to their specific circumstances.
- Evaluation and Outcome Measurement: The Differential Response program evaluates the effectiveness of the program by tracking outcomes such as family engagement, improved Page 4 functioning, reduced risk factors, prevention of occurrence of child maltreatment. The evaluation process informs program improvement efforts and ensures accountability.

Pathway 2 will encompass all strategies outlined in Pathway 1, with a coordinated partnership with CWS to increase the safety and protection of at-risk children. Pathway 2, Track:

CONTRACT BETWEEN COUNTY OF LAKE AND LAKE FAMILY RESOURCE CENTER FOR DIFFERENTIAL RESPONSE SERVICES

The DR program focuses on supporting the family's overall well-being, providing services and resources that address the underlying issues contributing to the safety concerns.
- Information Sharing: Lake FRC's DR program and CWS have a strong collaborative partnership, ensuring regular communication and information sharing. This includes coordinating and aligning services, sharing case information, assessments, and family plans to maintain a comprehensive understanding of the child and family's needs. DR Staff will be trained in the universal practice, principles, and philosophy that guides CWS to ensure an understanding of each other's roles and responsibilities. This shared understanding enhances communication, cooperation, and coordination in addressing the complex needs of the family. Lake FRC's Differential Response Program will work with Lake County families to meet the basic needs of their children with the goal of reducing the risk of child abuse and neglect, ensuring the family is connected to community resources and supports, and decrease the likelihood that a family will have a re-referral, entry, or re-entry into the child welfare system.
