

County of Lake Hiring Incentives

Purpose

The purpose of the hiring incentive is to attract and hire qualified employees for hard to fill positions. The County of Lake will pay a hiring incentive to a newly-appointed employee if the position has been determined to be hard to fill.

Hard to Fill Positions

A hard to fill position is defined as employment trends and labor-market factors that have impacted the ability to hire quality candidates for non-entry level positions. To be eligible for hiring incentives for hard to fill position, the department must be fully engaged in the recruitment process by taking timely action with the eligibility list and scheduling the interviewing process within four weeks of receiving the eligibility list. In addition, to qualify for hard to fill the position you must meet at least three of the hard to fill criteria listed below.

Hard to fill criteria:

- Resulted in 2 failed recruitments in a six month period.
- The recruitments resulted in fewer than 3-5 qualified, eligible, and available applicants in a six month period.
- The recruitment resulted in qualified candidate that declined the County offer of employment documented in NeoGov.
- Non-entry level positions that have turned over multiple times in the last three to five years.
