Everything has been in place since 2016. I was told inspector only was concerned with sleeping quarters ~~structure~~ building. It was legally permitted in 1936 or 1946. I showed him; however, my building was permitted for sleeping. He used a false reason to gain access, which should make this whole thing null & void. Someone has been complaining

#2 about me. They should be looked at for harassment.
They made many false complaints to cause all of this. I have made sure the fence was lowered, even though the majority of neighborhood is doing same thing. The off-set is same; the majority of neighborhood has structures just as close as mine. The permit instructor Logan Smith has been stalking + harassing me for last 2 or 3 years. Constantly intimidating me with his ability to destroy me + my house. I do not know what I did to upset him, but, its obvious. Look at everything he has said were violations without any legal reason to enter my property.
As I stated, his original complaint was not legitimate; this should negate any of his reason for his demand of inspection. As it was originally about my son sleeping in building that was permitted for purpose. He had been threatening me if I didn't comply. He terrifies me, but I am forced to deal with him. Previous inspector approved everything I had done (10 years ago); they act like I didn't have inspection, which is false. My husband was in charge of remodel; + unfortunately he died a couple years ago. In addition, they fired previous inspector (for some reasons, including bribery, I believe).

They have purposely tried to harass me + triggered my seizures over stress. Even making up ridiculous offset measurements + permits. Which no permits were necessary for these back then. Previous inspector said our placement was good. Now, 10 years later, this new guy has tried to say its not. Basically, his demand will cost me 5K to 30K to adjust building placement. In addition, the laundry room electrical work was done at same time all permitted work was completed. I am currently trying to get my disability case proceed. I have not been able to work for last 2 years, so my finances are really tight, so any costs will devastate me financially.

In addition, I did comply with → reducing fence heights in front yard + spent a lot of this month cleaning + organizing front + back yard. It all picked up, unfortunately, my dogs had torn a lot of stuff up while I was working 12 hour shifts at Tesla factory in Fremont. I was ashamed it had gotten to that point, + glad to get it fixed. Unfortunately, my seizures forced me to stop working.

This house had been abandoned for 30 years, before I came in + made it a home again. I tore down old out buildings + replaced with pre-built sheds by company called "Old Hickory".

When I spoke to permits, they said it didn't need permit + placement was fine. I wouldn't have invested all this money to do this otherwise. ~~Now, the~~

In addition, we had several letters put on my gate; they were very threatening.
 It had to be Logan Smith, as he was only one who could have known about these issues with permit. It mentioned it in letters, blaming my son for causing this. which was a legal
