

As a resident of Lakeport, I do not support development/business activity near Highland Springs which could impact the land and water of the area. The disruption of serpentine rock could be detrimental to the pristine quality of Highland Springs Park and the water. I regularly walk there and my dog enjoys swimming there.

Much of the allure of Lake County is the wildlife and natural beauty of our region. We need to protect the assets that we do have.

Thank you

Teresa Marks