

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS, COUNTY OF LAKE,
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Proclamation

Declaring September 22, 2017, Native American Day in Lake County

Whereas, Lake County has been home to Native American people for greater than 12,000 years, and the Native Americans of Lake County have been intertwined in every aspect of our community's history; and

Whereas, Native Americans have helped to make our community stronger and more prosperous; and

Whereas, we celebrate the richness of the County's unique Tribal history and traditions, and the impact Native American cultures have had upon every American; and

Whereas, The County of Lake is committed to protecting the Sovereign right of Native American Tribal organizations and institutions to strengthen their own communities; and

Whereas, in observance of Native American Day, the County of Lake encourages all citizens to join in recognizing the accomplishments and contributions Native Americans have made to our County, and salutes those who have sought to honor the important role of Tribal leadership in our County's past, present, and future.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT PROCLAIMED that the Lake County Board of Supervisors declares Friday, September 22, Native American Day in Lake County.

PASSED AND ADOPTED this 19th day of September, 2017.

ATTEST: CAROL J. HUCHINGSON
Clerk of the Board
