EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

Lake County Animal Care and Control cares for animals that are stray, surrendered, and injured. It is mandated by law for the shelter to properly care for all animals that the shelter has impounded. The shelter also manages and uses drugs to help for any illnesses or needs the animals may have. It is important for these drugs to be kept at certain temperatures to prevent them from expiring. It is important that the shelter is operational within the law, to care for these animals and for the public to be able to get their animals in a timely fashion. It is also important that the public be able to bring in stray or injured animals. The shelter also takes in and stores deceased animals from county roadways and public. We keep the deceased in a large freezer to slow the process rot and decay. We use a vendor who picks up the deceased and transports them away and if our freezer is down we could run into potential issues with the only vendor available to us.
