Memorandum

Date: March 12, 2024

To: The Honorable Lake County Board of Supervisors

From: Jessica Pyska, District 5 Supervisor

Subject: Presentation of the Lake County Community Foundation

Executive Summary:

The Lake County Community Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that serves as a community needs fiscal agent, administering grants for essential community projects, including low-income housing programs and initiatives that promote community resilience and equitable development.

In times of disaster, the foundation can swiftly respond to emergent needs, efficiently channeling resources to support relief efforts, rebuilding infrastructure and aiding affected individuals and families.

MISSION

Our mission is to empower and uplift communities in Lake County, nurturing lasting, sustainable transformation, diminishing disparities, and enriching the overall well-being of the community.

VISION

Our vision encompasses a thriving Lake County where residents make significant contributions, and each individual has the chance to learn, thrive, and achieve their utmost potential.
