Executive Summary:

The University of California Davis Campus (UC Davis) provides essential training, including all related materials, for Social Services (DSS) employees. Trainings cover various topics including Civil Rights, Welfare Fraud- Prevention and Detection, Accounting and Fiscal trainings, and even Field Safety Training. Many of these courses are required in order to comply with State regulations. The trainings not required by State law provide valuable information that would not be readily available or cost effective without the UC Davis contract. Because the vast majority of trainings are held at DSS, there are no venue costs to provide, and no meal, travel, or lodging reimbursements are necessary for employees attending. Furthermore, DSS and UC Davis adapted to COVID-19 regulations and transitioned trainings into an online platform, which increased flexibility and allows more employees to attend trainings. DSS increased the contract to include up to 86 training units available for use over the 18-month Contract period. In fiscal year 21/22, LCDSS held 22 UC Davis training sessions.

In July of 2022, Social Services issued a Request for Proposals (RFP) for training services, and UC

Davis was the only entity to submit a bid. UC Davis has included a 7% Cost Share which provides the County with a $25,585 discount.
