To: Lake County Board of Supervisors

From: Bruno Sabatier, Chairman and District 2 Supervisor

Executive Summary: (include fiscal and staffing impact narrative):

On February 23, 2021, our Board adopted the Proclamation Promoting Tolerance, Respect, Equity and Inclusion in Lake County.

As an important next step, I am recommending our Board now form an ad hoc committee to plan for the community visioning forum to develop recommendation for meaningful actions and activities that build bridges where there may be walls; fostering tolerance, respect, understanding, equity and inclusion; promoting non-violence and non-violent conflict resolution; focusing resources on underlying causes and conditions that lead to inequitable resource and justice distribution; and, relevant solutions for social injustices, as they may come to light.

I recommending that the ad hoc committee be comprised of seven seats, two Board members (Supervisors Scott and Crandell), one representative of law enforcement, and four members from the community.

If not budgeted, fill in the blanks below only:

Estimated Cost: _____ Amount Budgeted: _____ Additional Requested: _____ Future Annual Cost: _____
