Memorandum

Date: June 21, 2022

To: The Honorable Lake County Board of Supervisors

From: Jessica Pyska, District 5 Supervisor

Subject: (a) Presentation of a Proclamation Recognizing the Friends of Boggs Mountain for Outstanding Contributions to Outdoor Recreation and Economic Development in Lake County; (b) Presentation of a Plaque Honoring Debbie St. Cyr for Extraordinary Dedication to Bringing Back Boggs

Executive Summary:

As your Board is aware, the Friends of Boggs Mountain has been a dedicated and focused charitable organization making a meaningful difference for Lake County for two decades.

Their commitment to re-establishing Boggs Mountain Demonstration State Forest as a premier outdoor recreation destination in the aftermath of the Valley Fire, which destroyed all 24 miles of the then-existing trail network and 90% of the forest, has been particularly extraordinary.

Today, it is my great privilege to recognize the Friends of Boggs Mountain and Debbie St. Cyr of Redwood Trail Alliance for their resilience and remarkable contributions. Their dedication is an example and inspiration for all looking to accomplish big things in Lake County.
